

Brisbane Zombie Walk Survivor Volunteers Applicant Information

LIMITED PLACES AVAILABLE

Become part of the Brisbane Zombie Walk family today!

Due to our 2016 event being held at the Roma St Parklands, right in the heart of the city, we are anticipating a dramatic increase in attendance numbers! We need YOU, the survivors, to ensure the smooth running of the overall event, and support core team staff in ensuring the safety and happiness of our zombie walkers.

THE BRISBANE ZOMBIE WALK NEEDS SURVIVORS FOR:

- Marshalling: help guide the walkers around the zombie walk track, around the parklands! Ensure no one enters any dead zones, aid traffic controllers & police, and provide information about the route. As the route is quite long this year, we need all volunteers for this area regardless of other duties before/after.
- Stages: assist with setup/pack down, assist stage manager and costume competition organiser
- Blood Tent: Wanna get messy?! Help raise funds for The Brain Foundation by helping to 'bloody' the zombie walk participants.
- Hazardous Material Cleaners: Pull out your containment suits and gas masks and help ensure the virus is contained and cleaned up. We will provide you with a HAZMAT backpack to wash down any infected blood and contaminants along the route.
- Volunteer Management, Administration Runners, & General Duties

WHAT YOU WILL RECEIVE IN THE 'SURVIVOR PACK'

- 1 x entry to 2016 Brisbane Zombie Walk before and after parties – when you are 'offduty' - before/after your shift or on survival breaks (note all applicants will be required to be available during the official walk for marshalling duties regardless of area designation)
- 1 x Certificate of Appreciation from The Brain Foundation
- 1 x Free BZW Sticker
- 1 x Discounted BZW shirt $15 (optional)

To be a great Survivor you must:

- Appreciate zombie culture and don't scare easy!
- Be at least 16 years old, and are able to act in professional manner
- Be available on Sunday 23rd October 2016
- Have a regularly checked email address and/or are able to be a part of a facebook group for updates
- Want to contribute to your local community
- Understand that sometimes volunteering can be hard work, lots of standing up, running around, taking direction and using great communication skills, but remember that you are valuable to us, and a few hours given can be an important asset on your resume when you apply for that next job! You can also make some life-long friends!
- Understand that by submitting your application information via email, you agree to the terms and conditions outlined in the indemnity agreement below.

Survival Dress Code: As we need you to be identifiable as a Survivor/Volunteer to both staff and attendees, we will provide you with a high-visibility vest to wear during the event (must be returned). Survivors are welcome to wear make-up/costumes as long as it doesn't cover the hi-vis vest. It is required that you are appropriately covered for this family event, and have closed-in shoes (and we recommend a hat/sunscreen!).

VOLUNTEER RELEASE OF LIABILITY AND INDEMNITY CONTRACT

The undersigned volunteer ("Volunteer"), in consideration for permission to act as a volunteer for the Brisbane Zombie Walk ("BZW"), the sufficiency of such consideration is acknowledged, hereby acknowledges and agrees to the following:

1. Volunteer Relationship.

Volunteer has expressed an interest in providing services, as needed, to the BZW on a voluntary basis. This Contract will apply to all events or activities at which the BZW permits volunteer to provide voluntary services. Volunteer hereby acknowledges Volunteer's desire to volunteer services to the BZW for civic, charitable and/or humanitarian reasons. Volunteer understands and agrees that as a volunteer, Volunteer is not an employee, partner, agent, representative or contractor of the BZW under federal, state and/or local law or regulations. Volunteer also understands and agrees that because Volunteer is donating services to the BZW for altruistic reasons:

I. Volunteer has no expectation of any compensation, pay, fee or benefits for the services;

II. Volunteer is not entitled to wages or employee benefits to which BZW employees are entitled;

III. The BZW has not promised Volunteer any compensation for service as a volunteer; and

IV. The BZW has not promised or suggested that Volunteer will receive any employment opportunities, or greater consideration for any future employment opportunities, as a result of the volunteer service. Volunteer agrees that if at any time Volunteer believes that Volunteer should be compensated for the services, or that Volunteer is acting as an employee rather than as a volunteer, Volunteer will immediately notify the BZW of this belief in writing.

2. Waiver of Liability and Release.

I. Volunteer assumes all risks of injury, including death, to Volunteer's person and property arising from the services as a BZW volunteers, the use of provided facilities and equipment and participation in activities.

II. Volunteer further releases, discharges and holds harmless, for Volunteer and Volunteer's heirs, administrators, executors and assigns, the BZW, its directors, officers, employees, agents, administrators, insurers, successors and assigns, and any facility used for a BZW activity, and the facility's members, medical volunteers, directors, committees, agents, and employees, from all liability and claims of any and every kind and nature, whether arising out of negligence or otherwise, for any injuries, including death and loss of property, and including but not limited to theft, loss, negligence, invasion of privacy, fire or other acts.

III. Volunteer hereby waives all current and future claims, whether or not known and whether or not foreseeable, against such parties arising from any loss, damage or injury, including death, to Volunteer's person and property arising from the services as a BZW volunteer, Volunteer's attendance at any BZW event or activity, the use of provided facilities and equipment and participation in activities.

3. Indemnification.

Volunteer agrees to indemnify, hold harmless and defend, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the BZW, its directors, officers, employees, agents, administrators, insurers, successors and assigns from and against any and all demands, claims, liabilities, suits, causes of action, judgments, damages, losses, penalties, and/or expenses of any kind or nature whatsoever, including attorneys' fees, arising, directly or indirectly, from or resulting, directly or indirectly, from Volunteer's performance of volunteer services hereunder, however caused and regardless of any actions or omissions of the BZW.

4. Rules and Regulations.

Volunteer further agrees that Volunteer has seen, read and understands the BZW's rules and regulations applicable to each activity covered hereunder and agrees to abide by said rules and regulations. Volunteer certifies that Volunteer has reviewed and understands this entire document and all information is true and correct.
